LOYOLA HIGH

The Grand Carnival netted $6,100.00.

On Boys' Day a Loyolan was President of the Chamber of Commerce, another was City Attorney, another was Judge of the Municipal Court.

At the dinner at the Holy Ghost celebration in Point Loma, Bishop Buddy stated that his mother's last wish was that he should "become a Jesuit, or at least a Bishop."

Eight Catholic schools competed in the annual Field Day at Loyola University: Cathedral, Mt. Carmel, St. Anthony's (Long Beach), St. Vincent's (Riverside), Villanova (Ojai), St. Clare's (Oxnard), and Loyola High. Loyola High won.

Father North, the new Archdiocesan Director of Education, celebrated the Military Mass on Father Rector's Day.

When the R. O. T. C. was inspected, its officers received a rating of 100%. It is expected that Loyola will again be listed as the best in the city out of ten high schools.

After the Military Review, the unit marched to Our Lady's Shrine, where the Cadet Major spoke on "Our Lady of the Cadets." A salute was given to the Blessed Mother by the Cadets, and then the unit officially disbanded for the year.

Father Rector gave the triduum for the Scholastics. Also one for the Knights of Columbus in San Diego.

LOS GATOS

Father Rector's Day was celebrated, April 21, with the traditional Junior-Novice game, which ended in a 6-6 tie. At the evening entertainment a Greek address was given by Br. Joseph Geary.

Father Collins suffered a rupture which necessitated an operation. Later he recuperated at Santa Clara.

May 1, Mass was celebrated at the Lourdes Shrine, with the community assisting. Each evening during May, the Litanies of the Blessed Virgin are sung at the shrine.

A group of Bellarmine students assisted at Mass at the Lourdes Shrine on May 1, and on the feast of St. Robert Bellarmine.

On May 13, three Christian Brothers from Sacred Heart, San Francisco, visited the Novitiate.

The first year Juniors presented in May, a Latin play, "Phantasma Nocturnum."

Among Father Colligan's effects was a pair of very old cincture beads, with a note in his handwriting that they were the beads of Peter Molloy, the first Scholastic Novice received in the California Mission.

Mr. Molloy was born December 26, 1832, in Slough, Ireland. He taught at St. Ignatius, San Francisco, for a time. Received by Father Congiato, he entered the Santa Clara Novitiate, September 1, 1857. He died that same year in San Francisco, December 20, 1857, and was buried in the old cemetery at Mission Dolores. In 1912 an attempt was made in vain to find his remains; the headstone was brought to our cemetery at Santa Clara.

Was Mr. Molloy the first Scholastic Novice in the Mission? The first Coadjutor Brother was Brother William Lakebrink, who was received by Father Nobili at Santa Clara, May 10, 1853. Brother Lakebrink was born in Osnabrick, Hanover, December 25, 1805. He died at Santa Clara on July 1, 1888. The first Scholastic Novice according to the records was Mr. Richard Whyte, who was received at Santa Clara by Father Congiato, January 24, 1855. He pronounced his first vows at Santa Clara, January 25, 1857, before Father Congiato. After that, the records are silent.

SAN FRANCISCO

U. S. F. Law School has been given full accreditation by the American Bar Association.

Father Thomas Cosgrave has been appointed Minister with Father Gabriel acting as Sub-Minister until Father Cosgrave can be relieved from the high school.

Father Lui, a Chinest priest, has been our guest while in San Francisco.

Three more side chapels have been decorated in the church. Another one, that of St. Anthony, is under way. This will make a total of eight finished.

Father Cody has issued another high school sodality pamphlet.

The 2nd edition, 3500 copies, of Father Malaise's "Following of Christ" has appeared.

Father Peter Dunne has published the following articles: In the Historical Review, Jean Colet, Potential Protestant; in Mid-America, The Suppression of the Jesuits in New Spain; in U. S. F. Quarterly, The Americas and Jesuits.

Both the high school and college military units received favorable ratings in their annual inspection by military authorities.

James Gill, the university dramatic director, has been placed in charge of the fiesta program celebrating the opening of the Golden Gate Bridge. Over 100 St. Ignatius High School boys will be in the pageant.

St. Ignatius High won first and second places in an oratorical tournament held at S. F. State College, and defeated a field of contestants from fifteen California High Schools. Our boys have won three of the last four contests, thereby winning permanent possession of the prize trophy.

Father Rector, the only Catholic on the sub-committee, attended the meeting of the National Youth Administration at Los Angeles.

SANTA CLARA

The Coolidge Competition of law students, held in April, consists of a mock trial, and is modeled after the famous Ames Competition at Harvard. Prominent attorneys of the bay region acted as judges.

The Santa Clara College of Law has been recognized by the American Bar Association as an accredited School of Law.

After making proper deductions for the Brothers and Scholastics, 14,418 Holy Communions were distributed to the students during 1936-37.

Father Joseph Crowley conducted the day of recollection for the Seniors.

Santa Clara received a medal from the French Government for its victory over St. Mary's in the second annual Foch Debate, sponsored by the Alliance Francaise.

Before 3000 students and faculty members, Father Hubbard received the degree of Doctor of Science at Marquette University.

Father Hugh Donavon gave the blessing at the Memorial Day services, under the auspices of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Father Hugh Donavon was the principal speaker at a round-table discussion at the Roger Williams Club, Stanford. He spoke on the Catholic Church. The Roger Williams Club is for Protestants and copies the Newman Club.

Brother Lynch and Brother Anthony Pereira are seriously ill. Both were recently anointed.

Father C. Deeney gave an address on political economy to the San Francisco District Board of the Federation of Women's Clubs.

BELLARMINE PREP

In May Father Fox went to be chaplain for several months at St. Agnes' Hospital, Fresno.

Father Fox's debating team defeated Loyola High in Los Angeles.

The school paper won second prize in the Catholic High School papers of California. The prize is a brown plaque.

A new school folder and a new catalogue have been prepared.

The football field has been fully turfed and is in perfect condition.

In the third week of May, Father Rector visited all the Catholic Grammar schools of San Jose, Santa Clara and the Peninsula, and met all the 8th grade boys. There are 122 boys graduating from the 8th grade.

A beautiful ostensorium and new chalice have been obtained for the school.
